

A Place Unknown

Nine year old prodigy, Vincent Lowe, son of a Marine lieutenant colonel, moves with his family from Alabama to a recently built U.S. military base in Indonesia. After Vincent starts high school in Jakarta, he attends a soccer game where bombs explode killing dozens of spectators and Vincent suspects one of his teachers may be involved. Vincent and his family find themselves in the middle of a dangerous plot involving the CIA, a terrorist cell, the upcoming Presidential election, and ultimately the military base where they live. The characters in this mystery novel are complex, with motives and allegiances that are sometimes shifting and unclear. Follow Vincent's journey to the exciting conclusion.
