Did You Know? The Prophet (Allah bless him and grant him peace) said: The feet of a servant will not move on the Day of Judgment until he has been questioned about four things: his life - how he spent it, his knowledge - how he acted upon it, his wealth - where he earned it and how he spent it, and his body - how he used it. (Tirmidhi, Kitab sifat al Qiyamah wal Raqaiq) Lets face it weather you are Muslim or not, Time Management is vital to your success. However, as a Muslim it is more vital for you will be questioned about your time on earth, and how you utilized it. What will your excuse be on the Day of Judgment about being lazy and not utilizing your time properly? As a Muslim we know that time is a blessing from Allaah subhana wa Tala, and that we need to do as many good deeds with our time so that we are not in despair towards the end of our lives. Bin Abbas narrated that Prophet Mohammad (PBUH) said: There are two blessings which many people lose: (They are) health and free time for doing good. (Bukhari) Also Author of: 1.
