

Franklin Executive Vocabulary for Effective Communication: 2180 Most Common Words for Business Communication (Franklin Vocab Builder) (Volume 1)

NOT for native speakers of English. It is for people for whom English is 2nd language Title: Franklin Executive Vocabulary for Effective Communication: 2180 Most Common Words for Business Communication Includes download of CD#1. Product Description Business is about communication with people. To be effective as an executive requires you to be effective in communication. And, for effective communication, a powerful vocabulary is essential. This book contains the 2180 words, meanings, and for most words, memorable sentence fragments exactly as used in Franklin Vocab Builder Audio Program. The words are given in bold (example, the words belabor and buttress below). The meaning is given after the equal sign (=) following a word. The words are not necessarily in alphabetical order. We have used the US spellings. The British spelling of a word, when different from the US spelling, is given in bracket after BRITISH as shown for the word belabor below. USE gives a sentence fragment carefully chosen for memory. When no sentence fragment is given, a * is shown as in the word buttress below. belabor (BRITISH = belabour) = to assail verbally, to insist repeatedly or harp on USE = belabor a point buttress = support USE = *
