

The Oral Commentaries by Drikung Kagyu Teachers in San Francisco

This collection of Oral Commentaries covers a wide variety of subjects concerning Vajrayana Buddhist Practices. First, Drikung Kyabgon Chetsang Rinpoche, in 1999, comments on the refuge Vow ceremony, then he proceeds to talk about Amitabha Buddha and His pureland, and finally Vajrakilaya. Second, Garchen Rinpoche talks about the relationship of Calm-Abiding and Mindfulness meditations to the Heart Sutra. Garchen Rinpoche then proceeds to comment on Seven Point Mind Training, or Lojong, which is the giving up of self-cherishing. This took place two weeks after 9/11. Third, Lho Ontul Rinpoche comments on the Medicine Buddha practice known as The Drop of Ambrosia. These commentaries are extremely insightful and go far in the explanations of their subjects.
