

Feminism and the Second Fall of Man in Traditional Christianity

The declaration of the sexual revolution and the political actions of the late 1960s have sent a cascading shockwave through the decades that followed thereafter. These actions, though perhaps arguably correct for its time, have obscured the identity of what it is to be a man with a Christian faith, belief, and values. They have hindered the meaning of what it is to be a man. Want to know why most men run away from responsibility? Or don't know how to treat their lovers correctly? It's because most men are still at the maturity level of boys, never growing up and becoming the true meaning of MAN!
