

The Sandman

What could be better than a good nights sleep? Perhaps only the pleasure of getting there with the Sandmans help! Told in charming verse, The Sandman will send even the most stressed-out adult or fretful child to sleep. Equally comforting whether read quietly to oneself or aloud to a loved one, it evokes a relaxing world of magical sand, miniature bulldozers, lapping waves, and, best of all, restful sleep. Written long ago for psychologist Keith Floyds three worthy adversaries of Wynken, Blynken, and Nod, The Sandman is based on progressive relaxation suggestions seamlessly interwoven with the timeless Sandman theme. The singularly soporific bedtime story not only puts little ones safely and soundly to sleep, but happily it turns out that grown-ups are equally smitten by Sandmans charms. A real sleeper in every sense of the word, the book comes complete with warmest wishes for sweet dreams and many happy Awakenings.
