

Fortunes for All

At the age of 33 Vash Young was down and out: Uneducated, broke, jobless and virtually unemployable. Yet within a few short years he had become wealthy, renowned, respected, healthy and happy. At age 70 - still healthy, wealthy and living his dream - he wrote a guide telling us how we too could find success. Fortunes for All is that guide. In Fortunes for All, Vash Young tells the story of his life from his impoverished childhood, through his experiences as a young man and of the discovery he made that allowed him to turn his life around. Vash tells us in simple terms how anyone - no matter how disadvantaged - can achieve the same success in their own lives. What sets Vash Young apart from so many modern-day success gurus is that he did not derive his wealth from teaching others, but simply by applying his beliefs in his day-to-day living at home and at work. This means that his success is based on a model for everyman, not just those few with the gift of the gab
