

The Performance Management Activity Pack: Tools for Building Appraisal and Performance Development Skills

One important role of the manager is the assessment and improvement of their employees. This pack provides trainers everything they need to deliver a workshop that trains managers in appraisal and performance development. Using 35 exercises, trainers are given the tools they need to introduce participants to skills such as: establishing role clarity; monitoring and assessing performance; correcting performance shortfalls and building on success; and giving quality feedback and developing staff to their full potential.
