

Vaporizer Review Plus - 2016 Summer Edition: Compiled by the Editors at Cannabis Consumers Group.US

Cannabis Consumers Group is a Non-Profit Organization that Does Not Accept Money from Any Manufacturers or their Distributor in order to influence our review findings and recommendations! Cannabis Consumers Group DOES NOT accept backdoor money, financial support, or gratuities of any kind from manufacturers, distributors, or advertising firms for any product we evaluate in any of our publications. What our neutral position means for our readers is that our product reviews are consumer oriented, user friendly, and always focused on the best quality and reliability for every dollar spent! How reassuring to know you now have a consumer oriented and truly consumer focused review source that you can rely upon and trust for your important cannabis related buying decisions! Vaporizer Review Plus - 2016 Summer Edition is the only comprehensive buyers guide that covers everything you want to know about vaporizers including; best features, value, performance, pros and cons, plus in-depth reviews of the top 30 vaporizers most commonly purchased here in the U.S. Furthermore, our 2016 Summer Edition includes brand new categories related directly to new approaches for extraction of nutrients and derivatives from the cannabis plant. The Editors at Cannabis Consumers Group have made everything even more user friendly by graphically displaying key performance ratings using our (5) Star Review Matrix and including our latest upgraded version in this edition. Cannabis Consumers Group developed Our (5) Star Review Matrix to provide readers with a fast track graphically expressed rating in five or six key areas of performance, depending on the vaporizer category. All of the vaporizers discussed and evaluated in this book have been rated according to six key areas of performance with the exception of the Desktop that do not use batteries for operation. All Pen, Micro Portable, Portable, and Desktop Portable units use batteries for operation so include a sixth rating for battery design and battery life as part of their performance rating. If you are shopping for, or planning to buy the best vaporizer available for your money spent in the near future, or if you are looking for the ideal gift, or simply want to be in the know regarding what is the very best buy for your money spent, you will find this book an indispensable, and a must-have resource. If you are new to vaporizing and are not certain what category of vaporizer you need or want, or are not certain of what kind of material you most want to vape with, then this book has all of the information to help you make the very best decision. The convenience provided by our (5) Star Review Matrix will be familiar to most readers and easy to use as well. Our (5) Star Review Matrix Key clearly shows you what the rated values mean, and how they are weighted, in our review process. All vaporizers reviewed in our buyers guides are held to the same evaluation standard so provide readers with key information necessary for making critical decisions about their next vaporizer purchase. You can feel at ease knowing that Cannabis Consumers Group accepts NO Advertising or Financial Support of any kind from manufacturers or industry members on any level, so you know our reviews are unbiased and consumer oriented in every way possible. Whether you are in the market for your next vaporizer, or are just perusing the models and options available in the current marketplace, this book is a must-have resource! Take this opportunity to get your hands on a great buyers guide, plus support your very worthwhile Cannabis Consumers Group by getting your personal copy of this valuable must-have information resource!
